Message from Mr. McConnell

What an artsy week at Ashleigh! We've had a brilliant art exhibition from our highly talented Year 6s; Nursery and Reception enjoyed a visit from the Garlic Theatre and their amazing production of Jack and the Beanstalk, and Y3 have enjoyed a wonderful Charlie and The Chocolate Factory themed dance workshop. Thank you to everyone who made it happen!

Information about your child's learning

- Please make sure you visit the 'Year group information' page on the school website for information about what your child is learning this half term.
- Here you will find a Parent Map which gives a brief outline of everything that will be covered and Knowledge Organisers (KO) which provide more information about specific subjects.
- Please note that not every foundation subject is taught every term. We hope you find this information useful!

Year 6 Mock SATS - Breakfast

- Following on from the meeting last night we are pleased to advise you that all Year 6 children are invited to an Early Breakfast on the following days next week:
 - Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.
- If they wish the children may arrive at 8.15am at their usual classroom to enjoy a light breakfast and relax before the mock SATS begin, the children can attend but do not have to eat if they prefer to have breakfast before they come.
- If Year 6 children attend Treehouse Breakfast Club, they will be able to go to their classroom for 8:15am.
- Attendance is not compulsory and booking is not required.

World Book Day

We've sent some class photos into the Evening News for a feature on 13th March.
